Children's Books | Poetry

Her upcoming book

Mrs G. is working on two collections: the first is a collection of faith-based, short stories for children and the second is a collection of poems for both the young and the young-at-heart.

Elizabeth T. T. Gregory

Elizabeth T. T. Gregory, also known as MrsG., is passionate about using stories to inspire, entertain, and educate children. Her first degree in Zoology and post graduate studies in Education, as well as her training for Child Evangelism, paved the way for her passionate teaching (including Sunday School) and her appreciation of the beauty and diversity of God's creation which is reflected in the themes of her writings.

Mrs G. believes there is a story that can resonate with everyone in any situation to ignite the spark of humor or stir up the emotions and, of course, wrap up a day's activities with the ingredients that dreams are made of!

She thoroughly enjoys reading with and to children of all ages, especially her grandchildren. Connect with her on Facebook.
